Our dinner team.

One meal. Everyone has a part.

Pick one job per person. Practice it before expecting independence.

Tonight's meal

Before dinner: Set the table

Put out napkins and spoons.

Done: every place has what it needs.

During dinner: Pass and notice

Pass a cool, light, unbreakable item when asked.

Ask an adult about hot or heavy items.

After dinner: Clear and wipe

Clear unbreakable dishes, then wipe crumbs with a damp cloth.

Done: the table is ready for its next use.

Adult owns

A late-night dinner team

Each person clears their own unbreakable place setting. An adult handles food storage and the remaining cleanup.

An adult handles hot food, sharp tools, raw meat and heavy or breakable items. Match each job to the child's actual skills.
